What's been going on?...

On Friday afternoons, Live students have been doing music and art projects with K'antu Ensemble. We have a performance this Friday 15th March at Wilson Stuart School. We have been working with the BlueSky nursery children and performing songs with them. We help to teach them how to follow the beat and the solos using different instruments.

“K'antu Ensemble have given the children opportunities to explore, create and experience through art, music and dance in a program or workshops celebrating diversity and inclusion. This pilot project has been funded by arts council England and is laying the foundations for a larger project called CHIME festival

- Friday 15th March—we have Students Social Event. This event will be on the evening, with a disco, snacks, drinks and music.
- On Thursdays we have a new 'Eco Club' where students do projects which help to make the college more sustainable.
- Friday 22nd March—Students break up for Easter holidays and finish the day at 2pm!
